09 CRIM 512

COUNT ONE

The Grand Jury charges:

1. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, on the high seas, ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, committed the crime of piracy as defined by the law of nations, and was afterwards brought into and found in the United States, to wit, the defendant unlawfully, willfully and knowingly seized and robbed, and aided and abetted the seizure and robbery, of a United States-flagged ship, the Maersk Alabama, while the ship was navigating in the Indian Ocean beyond the outer limit of the territorial sea of any country.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1651, 3238 and 2.)

COUNT TWO

The Grand Jury further charges:

2. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, on the high seas and in the jurisdiction provided under Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2280(b)(1)(A)(i) and (b)(1)(B), ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, intentionally, and knowingly seized and exercised control over a ship by force and threat of force and intimidation, and attempted to do the same, to wit, the defendant, armed with a firearm, attempted to hijack, hijacked, and aided and abetted the hijacking of, the Maersk Alabama, a United States-flagged ship that was navigating in the Indian Ocean beyond the outer limit of the territorial sea of any country.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2280(a)(1)(A), 2280(a)(1)(H), 3238 and 2.)

COUNT THREE

The Grand Jury further charges:

3. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, on the high seas and in the jurisdiction provided under Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2280(b)(1)(A)(i) and (b)(1)(B), ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, intentionally, and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated and agreed together and with each other to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 2280(a)(1)(A).

4. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, and others known and unknown, would and did seize and exercise control over a ship by force and threat of force and intimidation, to wit, the defendant, and others known and unknown, armed with firearms, hijacked the Maersk Alabama, a United States-flagged ship that was navigating in the Indian Ocean beyond the outer limit of the territorial sea of any country.

Overt Acts

5. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the illegal object thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed:

a. On or about April 8, 2009, ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, and others, boarded the Maersk Alabama armed with firearms as the Maersk Alabama was navigating in the Indian Ocean.

b. On or about April 8, 2009, after boarding the Maersk Alabama, MUSE threatened the captain of the ship with a firearm.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2280(a)(1)(H) and 3238.)

COUNT FOUR

The Grand Jury further charges:

6. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, on the high seas, ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR

MUSE, the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly, during and in relation to a crime of violence for which he may be prosecuted in a court of the United States, used and carried a firearm, and, in furtherance of such crime, possessed a firearm, and aided and abetted the use, carrying, and possession of a firearm, to wit, the defendant, and others known and unknown, possessed machineguns during and in relation to the offense charged in Count Two of this Indictment.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 924(c)(1)(B)(ii), 3238 and 2.)

COUNT FIVE

The Grand Jury further charges:

7. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, on the high seas, ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly seized and detained and threatened to kill, injure, and continue to detain another person, namely, a national of the United States, and aided and abetted the same, in order to compel a third person and a governmental organization to do and abstain from doing an act as an explicit and implicit condition for the release of the person detained, to wit, the defendant, and others known and unknown, detained the captain of the Maersk Alabama on a life boat in the Indian Ocean, and demanded safe passage from the scene in exchange for the release of the captain.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1203(a), 3238 and 2.)

COUNT SIX

The Grand Jury further charges:

8. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, on the high seas, ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated and agreed together and with each other to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 1203(a).

9. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, and others known and unknown, would and did seize and detain and threaten to kill, injure, and continue to detain another person, namely, a national of the United States, in order to compel a third person and a governmental organization to do and abstain from doing an act as an explicit and implicit condition for the release of the person detained.

Overt Acts

10. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the illegal object thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed:

a. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, and others, detained the captain of the Maersk Alabama on a life boat in the Indian Ocean, and demanded safe passage from the scene in exchange for the release of the captain.

b. While on the life boat, MUSE used a radio to communicate with representatives of the United States Government and threatened to kill the captain unless his demands were satisfied.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1203(a) and 3238.)

COUNT SEVEN

The Grand Jury further charges:

11. From on or about April 8, 2009, up to and including on or about April 12, 2009, on the high seas, ABDUWALI ABDUKHADIR MUSE, the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly, during and in relation to a crime of violence for which he may be prosecuted in a court of the United States, used and carried a firearm, and, in furtherance of such crime, possessed a firearm, and aided and abetted the use, carrying, and possession of a firearm, to wit, the defendant, and others known and unknown, possessed machineguns during and in relation to the offense charged in Count Five of this Indictment.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 924(c)(1)(B)(ii), 924(c)(1)(C)(ii), 3238 and 2.)
